"Tū mai rā Hinemanuhiri, hai pou kāpura mō te iwi e kuia rangatira"

TE MAHERE RAUTAKI 2022-2025

TE KITENGA

E rere e te huata – hopukia
E rere e te mānuka – tomokia

Grasp the Opportunities and Go forth

TĀ HINEMANUHIRI TAUĀKĪ

Mā Ngā Tokorima a Hinemanuhiri e mahi tahi kia ora ake tātau ki te whakaharatau i tō tātau tino rangatiratanga kia whai hua mō ngā marae, ngā whānau, hapū me te taiao.

Ngā Tokorima a Hinemanuhiri will work together in a way that will allow us to practice our own tino rangatiratanga for the benefit of our marae, whānau, hapū and surrounding environment.

NGĀ UARA

Our Kāhui will uphold the following values in pursuit of our mana Motuhake, rangatiratanga being;

Mahi tahi
Ora Ake
Tino Rangatiratanga
Marae, Whānau, Hapū
Te Taiao

Our values aspire us to:

- have our marae continually remain the beating hearts of our identity
- improve our communication to our whānau
- have our whānau participate in our Kāhui affairs and activities
- ensure that our taonga tuku iho are protected and our whānau have a living relationship through taiao
- develop our property redress assets and further enhance our investment
- be an effective and efficient Kāhui Trust governance

HE WHAKAMĀRAMA

Hinemanuhiri was the grandchild of Kahungunu and Rongomaiwahine and had five children to Pūkaru the son of Ruapani. Their children were Tamaterangi, Mākoro, Hingāngā, Pupuni and Pareroa and known as the five of Hinemanuhiri.

The hapū of Hinemanuhiri thrived independently as well as together, drawing on their ancestral ties in times of need. The following marae and hapū descend from the union of Hinemanuhiri and Pūkaru
